R. O. C. No. 94
Dis. 24-25

From

A. Sreenivasaragavachari, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore.

To

B. NAGAPPA, Esq., Bar-at-Law,
Secretary to Government,
Local and Legislative Departments.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No.P.1411/Cts. dated the 15th September 1924, forwarding for the opinion of the Chief Court subject No.4, R.A. Session of October 1924, re: writing copies on both sides of copying sheets.

2. In reply, I am to state that the subject has already been considered by Government in consultation with the Chief Court, in connection with a representation for the reduction of the cost o paper and the charges for copying, and it has been decided that no change is necessary in the existing system. (Vide Governmen Order No.J.2714-23/Cts. 158-21-5 dated the 1st December 1921 and also Government Order No.C.J.7-16/Cts. 331-16-5 dated the 31st October 1917).

3. I am to observe that the Chief Court is of opinion that, since remuneration at the prescribed rates will have to be paid to the copyists and examiner for the number of words written on both sides of the copying sheets, there will be no appreciable advantage to the parties by the introduction of the proposal.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No.6763/Cts. dated the 16th June 1925, inviting reference to the discussions in the Representative Assembly on the subject of writing copies on both sides of the copying sheets and requesting the further views of the Chief Court in the matter.

2. In reply, I am to state that the Chief Court adheres to the views already expressed in my letter D1 Dis.No.94 of 1924-25 dated the 20th September 1924, namely, that no change is necessary in the existing system, and that, since remuneration at the prescribed rates will have to be paid to the copyists and examiner for the number of words written on both sides of the copying sheets, there will be no appreciable advantage to the parties by the introduction of the proposal, the saving in cost to the parties being practically negligible and completely outweighed by the inconvenience of having the writing on both sides instead of one.
